Privacy Information

Please complete this section regarding use of your membership information. If left blank, we will assume that permission is granted.

The Folk Song Society would like to begin (actually, resume) publishing a membership list periodically. The membership list would be distributed only to members of the Society. Check all that apply.

- It's okay to publish my name, address, home phone and email address (if any).
- Do not publish my address.
- Do not publish my home phone number.  Publish my work number instead.
- Do not publish my email address.
- Do not publish any listing for me at all.

The Folk Song Society occasionally gets requests from folk festivals, concert promoters or performers for address labels for a one-time mailing to advertise an upcoming folk event.

- It's okay to give a mailing label with my name/address to such persons or organizations.
- Do not give a mailing label with my name/address to such persons or organizations.

The Folk Song Society occasionally gets requests from folk festivals, concert promoters or performers for a copy of our mailing list so they can add our names to their own permanent list.

- It's okay to include my name/address in any list given to such persons or organizations.
- Do not include my name/address in any list given to such persons or organizations.
